Language for constitutional amendment

Dear Neal,

Enclosed find language for a constitutional amendment petition. This replaces the previous document filed with your office. In accordance with the provisions of Neb. Rev. Stat. 32-1405, please forward this language to the Revisor of Statutes for review. Please ask the Revisor to return her suggested changes to your office.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. If I can help, let me know.

Sincerely,

Language For A Constitutional Amendment Petition,
Revision 1:

At the general election in November 2014, the following proposed amendment to the Constitution of Nebraska shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska for approval or rejection:

To add a new section 1, to a new article XIX:

The Legislature shall enact a fair and equitable method of regulation and taxation regarding the commercial growing and consumption of cannabis plants, including but not limited to, marijuana and hemp. The State, and every subdivision thereof, shall make no law regarding an adult's private, noncommercial growing and consumption of cannabis plants, including but not limited to marijuana and hemp. All laws in contravention of this section and all provisions of law providing for taxation and regulation of marijuana enacted prior to the adoption of this section are hereby declared null and void.

If any provision of this Amendment, or the application thereof, is found to be unconstitutional, the remaining provisions, or the remaining application of those provisions, shall continue in force as law.

OBJECT:

The object of this petition is to tax and regulate all commercial uses of the cannabis plant, including but not limited to hemp and marijuana and to remove all laws regulating the private, non-commercial uses of the cannabis plant, including but not limited to hemp and marijuana.

INITIATIVE PETITION
